

P. M. SLOAN GETS THE COVETED PLUM

Effective August 1 He Will Succeed H. B. Worden on San Pedro.

HE WAS THE RATE CLERK HERE

Big Step Up the Railroad Ladder for Former Phoenix, Ariz., Man—Current News.

Effective Aug. 1, P. M. Sloan will be given the duties and title of assistant general freight agent of the San Pedro, Los Angeles & Salt Lake road, taking the place of H. B. Worden, resigned. Mr. Sloan is well known in this city, where he worked in the capacity of rate clerk for the Salt Lake Road prior to Mr. Gillett, making his headquarters in Los Angeles. From here he went to headquarters as chief clerk to the general freight and passenger agent.

Prior to coming here a year ago last December, Mr. Sloan was city freight and passenger agent of the Santa Fe at Phoenix, Ariz.

This appointment, which is officially announced, puts at rest the rumors regarding purported changes in the Salt Lake office.

THOSE GIDDY WOOLMEN.

The irrepressible Johnny Trewhella heard from in Montana.

The irrepressible Johnny Trewhella is still alive. The chief fester of the Rock Island had not been heard from for so long that his friends in this city were about to write to the chief of police of Butte for him to forward the corpse when the Billings Daily Gazette arrived in the mails.

Here is what it says: "The wool buyers and railroad men who are stopping at the Grand during the wool season put up a strong 'job' on the landlady Saturday afternoon."

Johnny Casan and Johnny Trewhella, who are stopping at the Grand during the wool season put up a strong 'job' on the landlady Saturday afternoon.

Grand Hotel. Good Meals with Two Cups of Coffee, 25 cents. Nice, Clean Beds, 25c and 50c. Special Rates by the Week. Breakfast, 7c to 9c. Dinner, Hand to Mouth. Supper—If There's Anything Left, "Banquet" Dinner, Sunday, only 50c. The banner was suspended from the rear windows on the south side of the building and soon attracted a large crowd. In the meantime the gang got busy and from every part of town telephone inquiries came in to the Grand asking about rates. Finally Uncle George's patience became exhausted and the conversation he had with the last caller was about as follows: "What is it? McNett? Well, I don't care whether you are McNett or not. If you want a chentleman you will come over and see me about rates. And if you don't come over I think you are a cur."

Finally, Uncle George "on" to the banner and when he went out and took a look at it he gave utterance to several characteristic expressions that wouldn't look well in print. He enjoyed himself, laugh, however, and immediately announced that rates to railroad men and wool buyers would go up a dollar a day. Casan and Trewhella, the ringleaders, will be charged $10 a day in the future.

Just on what day the distinguished party will arrive is not at this time forthcoming. In fact, it will not be known here until the train passes Cheyenne. Mr. Harriman and party will in all probability go right through to Monticello first, where they will take a ten day trip through Yellowstone park prior to going over the system.

THE BIG FIRE FESTIVAL.

Fortune Goes Up in Smoke Every Night This Week at Walker's Field.

The big fire festival at Walker's field continues to attract the public in generous degree. Great throngs went down last evening to see the "Fall of Pompeii," the ill-fated city. The gathering was the largest since the opening and the applause was of the most vigorous sort. It proves clearly that the Pain people have hit the town in earnest and that they have read their title clear to future visits to Salt Lake.

Of all the outdoor attractions that have come to Utah in the past it is decidedly the biggest and the best. Nothing else can compare with it. So small wonder that the public likes it. The brilliant display with innumerable variations will be seen again tonight and every night this week.

ELKS ARE HAVING A GLORIOUS DAY.

Celebration of Purple Day One of The Most Strenuous in Local History.

AT RACES THIS AFTERNOON.

Following the Great and Only Chariot Race, Stags Will Stampede To Saltair.

The town is full of Elks today, and the purple and white is the emblem of the hour. Banners and ribbons of this combination of colors are flitting and flying everywhere. The latter from numberless buttonholes, hats and parasols, and the banners and streamers from windows and flagpoles. There are a number of elaborate efforts at decoration by local business houses, the designs being very creditable to the window dressers.

After last evening's heroic effort, the Salt Lake Elks joined the Belated Rising association (limited), but they managed to round up this morning in time to hit the trail for the Short Line corral, where the Ogden Elks were given a glad mitt and the welcome countenance. The Ogden herd had rounded up nearly 400 Elks and their ladies, with Nicholas band, and fled out of the train in good order, with ribbons flying galore, and enthusiasm for their number. The visitors, escorted by the Ogden Elks, and their band, marched up South Temple street, "as large as life," and down Main to Second street, and then around to the house at State street. The column was cheered along the route, and in the enjoyment of the occasion, the heat was forgotten.

RACES THIS AFTERNOON.

The Salt Lake Elks kept open house and open heart, and the visitors were made entirely at home. Then Tintic, Park City, Provo and other places including several Idaho points, such as Pocatello, sent in delegations, and altogether it was estimated that fully 400 Elks and their ladies, but mostly Elks themselves, arrived from out of town. A delegation from Evanston, Wyo., did this afternoon. A band in a carry-all was about town this noon, "drumming up trade" for the races and the celebration at Saltair, and at 2 p. m. the trouble at the Agricultural park opened up in full and healthful blast. Among the events of the afternoon are the mule races, in which the various lodges of the state are represented, and the driver who is taken to the hospital first, gets the first prize the man who escapes unscathed being awarded the consolation prize. The race between the Elks and the Ben-Hur and Ben-Hur, promise to be one of the most notorious events of the day. Elton Senior Colonel Santiago C. Leary, Mayor of the city, and Past Grand Hieronymus James Devine are to be the charioters, and Colonel Leary has waged all the mavericks he has seen at the races in a year, on the result.

AT SALT AIR TONIGHT.

After 4:30 p. m. all trains for Saltair stop at the fair grounds, so that the multitude will not have to return to town to take the cars. Exalted Ruler Cleveland, Chairman Leary and Secretary Raybould have worked like Trojans today to make everything a success, and it is announced that all the available stunts of last evening will be reproduced, rehabilitated, rejuvenated and revamped at the Saltair part of the celebration. "On with the dance, let joy be unconfined."

LAWYERS DISAGREE OVER ESTATE FEE.

Could Not Fix the Amount That Attorney H. S. Tanner Was Entitled To.

COURT MAY HAVE TO DO SO.

Failure Was in the Raleigh Estate Case—Matter Was Discussed in Chambers for Hours.

After wrestling with the question of attorney's fees to be paid Judge H. S. Tanner as attorney for the executors of the estate of A. H. Raleigh, deceased, for two hours today in Judge Armstrong's private chamber the referees, who were six prominent lawyers, reported to the court that they could not agree upon a reasonable fee in the matter and it is very probable that the court will have to discharge the referees and fix the fee itself.

Judge Tanner put in a claim for $1,800 as attorney's fees and the heirs to the estate protested against the fee, claiming that he had already been paid $2,200 for services, and that an additional fee in the sum named above was too much. Judge Tanner had a number of lawyers to give expert testimony in regard to reasonable attorney's fee in the case. So Judge Armstrong decided to just refer the matter to the lawyers for settlement.

They together with Judge Tanner and Attorneys Sullivan and Barnes, representing the heirs, retired to Judge Armstrong's private chamber to consider the matter. They used up several pads of paper and several pencils in their calculations and tried to arrive at a fee by averaging up all the fees stated by the attorneys on the witness stand. But all their efforts were without avail, they could reach no satisfactory conclusion and shortly before 2 o'clock they reported that they had agreed to disagree. They were then in the history of the state was a dismal failure. The attorneys who took part in the deliberations in the case are F. J. Gustaf, Matt Thomas, A. H. Irving, W. R. Hutchinson, Judge S. W. Stewart and M. E. Wilson.

NORWEGIAN CRISIS.

Both Houses of Riksdag Approve Special Committee Report. Stockholm, Sweden, July 27.—Both houses of the Swedish parliament today approved the report of the special committee appointed by parliament to deal with the crisis between Sweden and Norway. In the first chamber the report was adopted without debate. In the second chamber the recommendation in the report regarding negotiations for a loan to Norway was adopted unanimously, but there was some objection to the proposed loan of $25,000,000 to meet the new conditions. About a score of members voted against the loan, the Social Democratic leader, Herr Branting, pointing out the danger of militarism and declaring that the proposition was a violation of the political spirit of the recommendation to negotiate. It was a dangerous precedent, he said, for Sweden never heretofore had borrowed money for military purposes, and he feared Norway would regard it as being in the nature of a threat of war. This view was contested by other speakers, who pointed out that the crisis was by its nature a political one, and that the unanimous approval of the condition of disapproval, had voiced its willingness to dissolve the union, and its desire for peace both in the present and in the future.
